In Memory—Sara Brooks (Collins) Marr

LTM19 (MS Auxiliary), 119 (EANGUS Auxiliary)

Mrs. Sara Brooks (Collins) Marr, at age 92, departed this life for her heavenly reward from her residence in Tupelo on Friday morning, December 17, 2021. Brooks was a longtime educator, community leader, and faithful and engaged member of Harrisburg Baptist Church. She was the widow of the late William "Bill" Marr, Sr., U.S. Army, Ret., who died in 2013.

A service celebrating her life was held at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, December 22, 2021 from the Sadie Holland Memorial Chapel of Holland Funeral Directors with Bro. David Smith officiating. A private family burial followed in Lee Memorial Park.

Memorials may be made to Harrisburg Baptist Church, 4675 Cliff Gookin Boulevard, Tupelo, MS 38801.

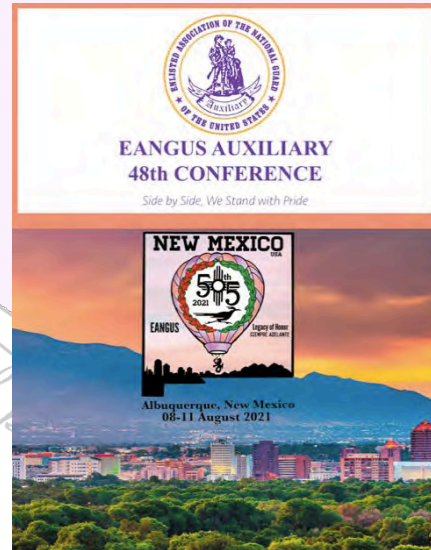

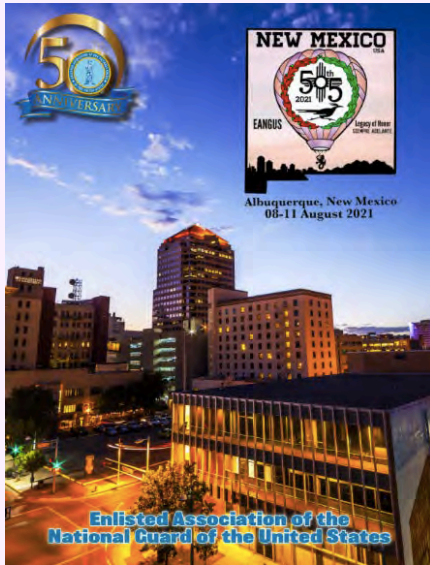

Brooks served as the MS NG NCO Association Auxiliary President 1988-1990 and as the EANGUS Auxiliary President 1994-1998. Brooks was also active in Family Readiness and the Mississippi State Advisory Team. Along with Auxiliary members Paula Carrigan and Vivian Taylor she was instrumental in beginning the Mississippi National Guard Youth Camp, Kids AT, and served as its first Camp Director. She continued to serve until health curtailed her activities.

Brooks leaves a legacy of service. Please remember her family in prayer.

Bost Urges DoD to Clarify Shifting Policy Impacting GI Bill Eligibility

Rep. Mike Bost (R-IL.), the Ranking Member of the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs, released the following statement after sending a letter to Secretary of Defense, Lloyd J. Austin III, regarding National Guard Members' eligibility for GI Bill benefits following the Biden Administration's recent termination of the national emergency declaration at the southern border.

"The Biden Administration's decision to reverse the emergency declaration at the southern border risks national security. It also risks the education of thousands of members of the National Guard who are still deployed there," said Ranking Member Bost. "Secretary Austin must immediately tell us whether those serving at the border since January 20th are receiving the same credit toward the GI Bill that they were on January 19th. Their service has not changed. Their benefits should not change either. The National Guard has stepped up in extraordinary ways over the last year. They have left their families and lives behind to serve on federal duty at the border, in DC, and elsewhere. Every single one of them should receive full GI Bill credit for their service. I stand ready to work with the Secretary to make sure they get exactly that."

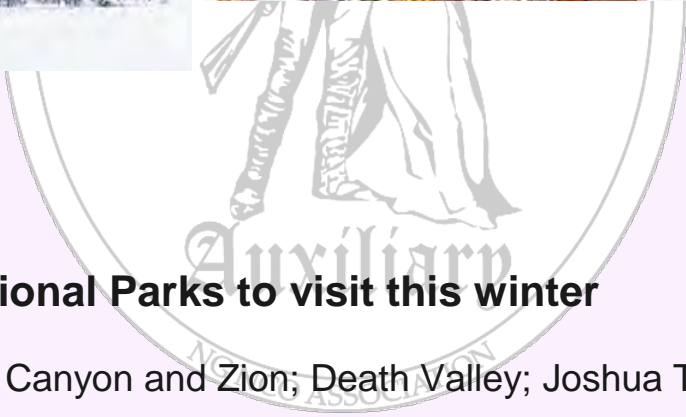

The status of servicemembers of the National Guard currently serving at the southern border includes end strength and the statutory authority for their service. Rep. Bost asked for clarification on whether the rescission of Presidential Proclamation 9844 eliminates the ability for members of the National Guard currently serving on the southern border to continue to receive credit towards Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits and, if so, how that is being communicated to them.

As EANGUS members know, we are continually pushing for our well-deserved benefits. We will continue to monitor this situation and ensure everyone is receiving updated information. We will be assisting Rep. Bost with any follow on legislation he feels is needed.

Please answer the Calls-to-Action when sent

6 best US National Parks to visit this winter

Yosemite; Bryce Canyon and Zion; Death Valley; Joshua Tree; Mount Rainier

Did you know that veterans and active duty Soldiers get free entrance to National Parks across the USA? Winter is the best time to visit as they are less crowded and provide the opportunity to see more of the majestic views.

Chuck Bednarik played linebacker and center for the Philadelphia Eagles, the last true two-way player

Bednarik enlisted in the Army when he was 18 years old. He was a gunner on 30 missions in World War II and earned the Air Medal, four Oak Leaf Clusters, the European Theater Operations Medal, four Battle Stars and the Good Conduct Medal. After his return to the United States in 1945 he enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania and joined the football team. He was the first offensive lineman in 1948 to win the Maxwell Award as college football's most outstanding player. He was selected by the Eagles with the first overall pick in the 1949 NFL draft. Bednarik was a stand-out on both sides of the ball, earning All-Pro honors at both center and linebacker over the course of his career; he became most famous for his hard-hitting plays on defense. He was the last player in NFL history to regularly participate in every play of an NFL game. He won two NFL championships (1949, 1960) with the Eagles. He retired after the 1962 season. Bednarik was named to eight career Pro Bowls and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. Eagles' legend Chuck "Concrete Charlie" Bednarik was one of the best players to ever play in the city of Philadelphia

Fun Facts

Bob Hope: The first “Honorary Veteran” in U.S. history

1. On May 6, 1941, at an Army Air Corps Base (March Field in Riverside, California), Bob Hope performed and broadcast his first USO show for service members.
2. Bob Hope played golf with Tiger Woods.
3. He spent 48 Christmases with American troops overseas.

4. He has a lot of medals including the Congressional Gold Medal, Presidential Medal of Freedom, the Air Force Order of the Sword, Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, Admiralty in the Great Navy of the State of Nebraska, and many more.
5. He was an honorary member of the Harlem Globetrotters.

Bob Hope, legendary comedian and star of radio, stage, and screen — not to mention a man who once played third billing to Siamese twins and trained seals — had a really, really soft spot for U.S. troops, especially those who deployed to combat zones. It’s an amazing thing, especially considering that he was British.

For more than 50 years, the “One-Man Morale Machine” spent time away from his family and his comfortable Hollywood life to visit American troops during peacetime and at war. He performed on Navy ships and Army bases, often close enough to hear the sounds of combat. To him, that didn’t matter. He once said, “Imagine those guys thanking me. Look what they’re doing for me. And for you.”
